HARRINGTON BRANDS PRESENTS

CAMP
LEADERSHIP
ROUNDTABLE SERIES

WHAT IS IT: A series of relevant, highly participatory roundtable meetings in order to build the needed competencies and skill development for potential managers and leaders in leading organizations. These meetings create skills to help employees better manage, coach and lead the workforce in your industry.

WHO IS THIS FOR: This series is focused on low to mid-level management or those seeking more interpersonal, soft-skill development to further their career.

WHY DOES THIS EXIST: To provide organizations within the area cost-effective, results-oriented trainings through training and facilitated peer-to-peer learning. With this series organizations can increase the use and application of training content into the day-to-day operations to generate competent leaders, happier staff, and better products and services.

WHAT'S AT CAMP:

Leadership peers from other companies
Weekly Journaling & Application
6 Training Sessions + Peer Discussion
Leadership Discovery Tool (add on)

WHATS THE VALUE

Exponential leadership growth
Pipeline of trained leaders
Common leadership language
Happy, highly competent leaders
A culture of leaders
